

MUST GRANT DEMAND FOR WAGE INCREASE OR MEN WILL STRIKE

RAILWAY SHOPMEN WILL LAY DOWN THEIR TOOLS TUES-DAY MORNING IF WAGES
ARE NOT RAISED

APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

Wilson Will Meet Delegation of Union Officials Tomorrow Morning—Little Hope for Agreement Is Entertained

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—President Wilson will meet a delegation of three railroad union officials at 10:30 tomorrow morning, it was announced at the white house.

President W. G. Lee of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen telephoned Director General Hines of the railroad commission today and asked for a conference. Lee has given Hines formal notice that his union wishes to terminate its present contract Feb. 23.

It is expected that the president at this time will give to the railroad workers his answer to their demands for immediate wage increases, which they have been pressing in negotiations with railroad officials. These negotiations have been in progress since Feb. 2.

The three members of the delegation will be selected from representatives of the fourteen railroad unions who have been carrying on the negotiations. They will see the president as he sits in his wheelchair in the white house gardens.

Before meeting the railroad men the president will study the whole wage controversy which was postponed last summer when he requested the men to give the government's fight to bring down living costs a chance to show results. A written report covering the entire controversy will be delivered to him today. It was announced at the white house after a conference between Hines and J. P. Tumulty, secretary to the president.

Following the announcement that the president would meet the railroad men personally, Secretary Lansing admitted that he had called off all cabinet meetings until further notice. It was recalled that the cabinet handled the coal strike and the calling off of the bi-weekly meetings was regarded as showing that the president's decision to handle the railway controversy alone.

When informed the president will see them, the railroad union leaders met to select their committee.

President Shea of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Bert A. Jewell, head of the American Federation of Labor, railway department will be named to the committee. It was believed the third member may be Warren S. Stone, head of the United Mine Workers, or L. E. Sheppard, head of the conductors.

Union leaders today were not optimistic over the probability of their gaining from the president their complete demands.

Officials, however, believed they would prevent a railroad strike. Tumulty, after his talk with Hines, was especially optimistic.

(By Ralph F. Couch)
Washington.—Rail Director Hines today planned to submit to President Wilson the entire railroad wage question which he has discussed since Feb. 3 with officials of the 14 big unions.

Hines will call at the White House with a voluminous mass of data representing his own views and those of the union officials. He will take this step at the request of the union leaders. The president is unlikely to reach a decision before Tuesday, it was indicated today.

Bert M. Jewell, head of the American Federation of Labor railway department, today was named chairman of the committee of three to meet President Wilson.

Other members are J. E. Manion of the railway telegraphers and Timothy Shea, head of the firemen and engineers.

According to statements of Vice President John Malloy of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way workers the union will carry out its strike order, unless its demands are granted before seven o'clock Tuesday morning.

Putting the wage question up to Wilson will not cause cancellation of the strike order, effective Tuesday, and already sent to 300,000 members of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way employees, Vice President Malloy said today.

"The only thing that will avert our strike is the granting of our demands," said Malloy. "Mr. Hines' decision to confer with the president will not cause us to cancel or postpone the beginning of the strike. A cash wage advance is what our men want."

Malloy this morning sought a conference with Hines to deliver a letter framed yesterday by the strike committee of his union. The letter is intended to give Hines one more chance to meet the demands of the union, Malloy said.

According to Malloy travel on all railroads will become dangerous for the public immediately after his men quit.

President Wilson will find it difficult to grant the demands of the unions, officials predicted today. They pointed out the president is no more

GETS $10,000 HEART BALM IN SUIT FOR $500,000

By United Press Leased Wire
Indianapolis.—Amy O'Connor "the Irish rose" was given $10,000 by a jury in federal court here today in her $500,000 heart balm suit against Allen Gray, millionaire banker of Evansville.

Miss O'Connor charged the elderly banker brought her to America from London, that they lived together in New York and that Gray was responsible for an illegal operation which ruined her health.

CONGRESS SPEEDS UP TO BE READY FOR POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

WANT TO WIND UP WORK BEFORE NATIONAL CONVENTIONS OPEN—MANY MEASURES REMAINING.

(By Raymond Clapper.)

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—Congressional leaders, anxious to clear up the legislative questions and adjourn for the national conventions and the campaign, took steps today to speed the law making machine.

Senator Curtis, Kansas, republican whip, declared he believed the senate would finish its work by June. Representative Mondell, republican leader in the house, is arranging his schedule with the idea of adjourning not later than June 5.

Senate leaders pointed out that practically the only important measures yet to come before that body are army reorganization, ten or eleven of the regular appropriation bills, and the budget. The peace treaty, they believe, will shortly be disposed of, railroad legislation has practically been agreed upon, two of the regular appropriation measures have been passed, the oil land leasing bill has gone to the white house and the water power bill has passed the senate and been sent to conference.

No merchant marine legislation is likely at this session and no tariff bills will be up except the small group of "popcorn" bills relating to dyestuffs, chemical glass, pearl buttons and a few other commodities, they said. Bonus legislation for soldiers, sailors and marines probably will wait in view of the economy program.

The senate and house republican steering committees today conferred in the hope of formulating a legislative program which will allow adjournment before the meeting of the national conventions in June.

Plans were also discussed for greater economy in governmental expenditures.

OKLAHOMA DELEGATES WILL BE INSTRUCTED

By United Press Leased Wire
Oklahoma City.—Oklahoma's eight delegates at large to the republican convention will be instructed. The state convention here decided yesterday. Jacob Hammon was endorsed for national committee member. General Wood had been expected to secure the Oklahoma delegation.

likely to authorize increases than was Hines, who maintained such action would be unfair in view of the fact the roads are to go back to private control March 1.

The president's most likely course, it is believed, would be to communicate with the private railroad managers, urging them to give careful consideration to the demands of the union.

One other course would be to ask the men to refer the controversy to the railroad wage boards to be created by legislation now in congress under authority of which the roads will be returned to private hands.

Union leaders presented to Hines a mass of statistics of living costs prepared by the labor department showing they said today, the absence of the government to reduce prices. Hines countered with the statement that government reports showed the peak of rising prices had been reached and that a decrease is now close at hand.

Open Strike Offices

Detroit.—Strike headquarters were opened by the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Railway Shopmen in which scattered cities today, it was announced at national headquarters here.

Among the cities were: Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Indianapolis, Atlanta, Houston, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Salt Lake City, Toledo, Wilkesbarre, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Monroe, La., and St. Louis.

Will Prosecute Strikers

Tupelo, Miss.—Warning has gone out to brotherhood unions in Kansas that the state will prosecute those responsible for a railroad strike within its boundaries.

In a circular letter to officials of the Maintenance of Way and shop laborers unions within Kansas, Attorney General Hopkins urged them not to stop work.

If they strike, Hopkins added, he must enforce the industrial court law—which makes illegal the tie up of necessary industries—including the railroads.

Resources Of Banks Total 45 Billions

American Banking Power Nine Times as Great as Thirty Years Ago, Report Shows—Thrift Will Even Up Exchange Rates.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—Banking resources of the United States now total more than $45,000,000,000, Comptroller of the Currency John Skelton Williams stated in his annual report to congress today.

Of this, national banks on November 17, 1919, held $22,444,000,000, an increase of $11,585,000,000 since August 1914, and state banks on June 30, 1919, held $26,380,000,000, an increase of $11,705,000,000 since June 1913. It represents a banking power nine times more than it was 30 years ago, Williams said.

One person out of every six has a bank account, according to Williams' report.

Williams suggested that the United States might solve the question of collecting its foreign balances by furnishing European countries the crude materials and machinery which they need, so they may convert the raw products into articles and merchandise worth from ten to a thousand times the value of the raw materials.

To bring foreign exchange back to the old gold parity, Williams said that there must be more production and thrift.

"Foreign nations must avoid purchase and importation of luxuries and refuse even to import essentials when these can be produced at home," he advised. Williams also declared every possible effort should be made to increase the production abroad of those things for which a market can be found in this country.

Williams, touching on the high cost of living, said bankers could be of tremendous help in restraining speculation in commodities as well as securities if they would impress on business men that in the long run an assurance of future permanent and substantial profit can be had only by reducing present profits to the thin, reasonable margin and limiting earnings, dividends and additions to surplus, to the most modest figures consistent with safety.

He pointed out that while volume of transactions as expressed in dollars has exceeded all records, there have been actual reductions in output of mines and factories.

According to the report, only one small national bank failed with loss to its depositors between January 1, 1918, and November 1, 1919.

The average dividend paid by national banks for the year ending June 30, 1919, on capital stock was 12.15 percent. Cash in vaults of the country's 7,785 national banks to June 30, 1919, totaled $424,455,000. State banks and trust companies reported on hand $572,898,000 and the federal reserve banks reported $2,216,256,000.

Criminal prosecution of bank officials for the fiscal year resulted in the conviction of three bank presidents, one vice president, 11 cashiers and ten others, who received sentences of imprisonment from six months to ten years.

SALE OF EX-GERMAN SHIPS IS APPROVED

PRESIDENT HAS NOT CHANGED HIS MIND ABOUT SALE—WILL TRY TO GET TOP PRICE.

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—President Wilson has again given his approval to the sale of ex-German passenger and cargo vessels by the shipping board, it was indicated at the offices of the board today.

Chairman Payne of the board called at the white house late yesterday. It was understood the purpose of his visit was to ascertain whether charges that the ships were to be sold at low prices and were finally to go to the English, had caused the president to change his mind about their sale.

Payne today was going ahead with plans for the sale which is to start here next Monday with an auction of 23 passenger liners. He has notified shipping associations to inform their members of the action. Commissioner T. A. Scott has returned from New York with promises of several ship lines that they would bid for vessels allocated to South America.

Payne today emphasized that every effort will be made to get top prices for vessels even though it may be necessary to break up groups of ships assigned to certain trade routes. The board reserves the right to reject bids regarded as too low.

WOULD CUT LIVING COST BY OUSTING RETAILER

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Reduction of the high cost of living through the elimination of the middle man and his profit is the aim of the All-American Farm-Labor Cooperative Congress, meeting here today. G. H. Gustafson, president, declared.

Delegates from the entire country attended the first session of the congress which is expected to approve co-operative measures framed by eight committees.

Gustafson reiterated denials of reports that the gathering would be the occasion for the launching of a third party.

"The organized farmer and labor forces uniting to secure a program of direct trading and cooperative banking are not going to be in the class of any wild-cat-wish policy," Gustafson said. "We have no intention of launching a third party movement."

Delicate Problems Confront Allied Premiers In London

French, British and Italian Leaders Are Not in Accord on Settlement of Problems Growing Out of World War—London Succeeds Paris as the Capital City of Europe

By Ed L. Keen
By United Press Leased Wire

London.—London has replaced Paris as the seat of deliberations to settle problems growing out of the world war.

With the "big three" conference of premiers in session to decide future Allied attitude toward Russia, settlement of the Adriatic dispute between Italy and Jugoslavia, disposition of Constantinople and measures to force Germany to live up to article 228 of the treaty of Versailles, and the council of the league of nations meeting to bring about organization of that world society, London had become for the moment virtually the capital of Europe.

The "big three" premiers Lloyd George, Millerand and Nitti was confronted with some of the most difficult questions that have come up since the closing of the main peace conference in Paris. The matters included many that have been side-tracked time after time because of their delicacy.

One of the first questions to come before the premiers, it was believed, will be Germany's virtual refusal to deliver the list of war guilty whose surrender for trial by allied tribunals is demanded, and her delinquency in delivering coal to France, as provided by the treaty. Germany already is far behind in these deliveries. French officials have said.

There were many indications that the premier's discussion probably will be marked by heated debate, as it was known they are at loggerheads on many important questions.

Great Britain, it was said, is reluctant to allow the demand for surrender of German war guilty to be made a test case as to Germany's intentions toward the peace treaty, while France takes the position that drastic measures must be used, if necessary, to force Germany to live up to article 228. The presence of Marshal Foch, who arrived yesterday with Premier Millerand, was taken to indicate the French determination to discuss military issues to enforce surrender of the accused Germans.

A wide split in plans for disposition of Constantinople also was indicated. Before leaving Paris, Millerand told the French foreign affairs committee he favored permitting the Turks to remain in Constantinople with possible international control of the city and port. Lloyd George, on the other hand, recently told parliament that the Turk cannot be allowed to remain in Europe. In this controversy it was said, Premier Nitti will side with France.

Conflicting interests in the near east also were expected to cause trouble. France, it was said, will insist upon her full rights under the treaty of 1916. It was predicted that some solution of the Adriatic tangle will be reached at the conference. The first big belief will be secured and endeavor to get Jugoslavia to accept the Allied compromise agreement which Jugoslavia once rejected.

France and Great Britain, it was stated authoritatively, are ready to go almost any length to finally dispose of this troublesome controversy.

Millerand was expected to urge further penalties against Germany for her failure to deliver the amounts of coal specified in the treaty. His debut as a member of the "big three" was watched with great interest particularly for any possible change in French policies.

France May Give In

Paris.—France probably will agree to modification of the treaty of Versailles, as reported to be favored by the British, provided she is given other compensations, it was learned semi-officially today.

With the "big three" premiers in conference in London, French officials believed Lloyd George will suggest certain changes in the Versailles pact and that Premier Millerand will agree to them. In turn Lloyd George makes concessions to the French premier.

Officials pointed out that France has supported Great Britain's program consistently, even backing her in her proposition to demand surrender of the German war guilty for trial by Allied tribunals.

If Lloyd George has changed his mind in this demand, the French officials declared, Millerand will ask some changes in the treaty to give greater benefit to France.

It is generally believed, however, that Lloyd George's home policy has forced him to consider a resumption of trade relations with Germany and Russia which will necessitate modifications in the Versailles treaty.

WOOD APPEALS FOR MORE EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES

By United Press Leased Wire
Minneapolis.—Major General Leonard Wood believes in preparedness in every phase of public life. He said a large audience here last night that military preparedness is not the only thing to which America must put her shoulder—she must be prepared for greater agricultural production, business efficiency, manufacturing production, transportation and greater educational facilities. Wood insisted that educators' salaries must be increased in order to uphold educational standards. From the same platform former President William Howard Taft flayed radicals of the country and pleaded for a conservative Americanism. He declared new reservations and amendments to the peace treaty are mere changes in phraseology, and said the league to enforce peace long ago indicated it would favor even the Lodge reservations, rather than lose the treaty.

Ask $250,000 For Road Work In The County

Probable That $50,000 Will Be Raised by Bonds—Need Large Sum to Secure Appropriation from The State

Now that the soldiers' bonus bond issue of over $167,000 has been disposed of to local banks, making it unnecessary for the county to raise the funds and place the amount in the next tax roll, the most important matter to come before the meeting of the county board which opens at the court house, Tuesday, Feb. 23, will be an appropriation to cover road work to be done the coming season.

The amount to be asked for will be $250,000 to complete the work already commenced and contemplated, and the amount necessary to secure the appropriations from the state. In all probability $50,000 of this amount will be a bond issue. The district attorney has been instructed to look up the law relative to the appropriation for the purpose of determining if it can locally be made.

The contemplated appropriation has already been taken up in several towns of the county, which has not yet been held by taxpayers for the purpose of instructing supervisors how to vote. In view of the fact that the ballot on the bond issue at the November meeting was unanimous it is the general impression that there will be very little opposition to the appropriation.

Engaging of patrolmen for the coming season will in all probability be taken up at the next meeting of the county board and bridge committee, the date of which has not yet been determined. It is possible that a meeting will be called within the next few days as the school for patrolmen is to be held at the courthouse from March 1 to March 15.

Since it became generally known that the responsibility of keeping the country roads open rests with the farmers instead of with the county highway commissioner the farmers have been doing very thorough work in the way of opening the main traveled highways and have all sorts of devices for removing the snow.

WOMEN VOTERS MEET TO OUTLINE PLANS FOR THEIR CAMPAIGN

NEWLY EMPOWERED VOTERS
TURN ATTENTION TO REMEDYING EVILS IN THE AMERICAN SYSTEM

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Spurred by the thrill of victory, suffrage leaders of America today sought new words to conquer. Preliminary to the victory convention of the national American Woman Suffrage Association, which will celebrate accomplishment of its main purpose—ratification of the federal suffrage amendment to the constitution—committees of the organization met today to outline future campaigns.

The committees plotted the organization which will grow out of the suffrage association, the League of Women Voters, which will give its attention to the following:

Spreading the doctrine of Americanism.

Obtaining greater facilities for education of illiterates, aliens, and minors.

Protecting women engaged in industrial pursuits.

Safeguarding the welfare of children.

Furthering laws prohibiting speculation in foodstuffs and other legislation looking toward stabilization of food prices.

Obtaining and enforcing social hygiene legislation.

Unification of laws concerning women, including divorce, property rights, citizenship, and mother's pensions.

The committee considering the question of food supply and demand, declared the "production of necessary food supplies is diminished and the high cost of living is increased by unduly restrictive private control of the channels of commerce, or by large food organizations and combinations."

The "principles and purposes" of the Kenyon-Kendrick-Anderson bills before congress providing for regulating the meat packing industry, were indorsed.

The committee will demand that both political parties include in platform similar endorsement.

Establishment of public markets, milk depots and other terminal facilities to aid in the distribution of food was recommended.

BRITISH COAL MINERS MAY START BIG STRIKE

By United Press Leased Wire
London.—Vernon Harborthorn, miners' leader, today predicted a nation-wide strike of British coal miners within six weeks.

Replying to Premier Lloyd George's statement in the house of commons last night, that the government will fight attempts to force nationalization of mines, Harborthorn declared the "issues now are outside of parliament."

The miners are determined not to work longer for private owners, Harborthorn declared. He said the unions had plenty of funds and proposed to fight until they won out.

The premier's home rule bill for Ireland which he also discussed in his address to commons yesterday, will be presented next week, it was learned.

PLAN MIDDLE GROUND SENATORS UNSATISFACTORY

SENATOR HITCHCOCK REJECTS MILD RESERVATIONISTS' COMPROMISE AS WORTHLESS.

FACE MANY DIFFICULTIES

Many Objections Must Be Met Before Senate Will Reach Agreement on Pact—Article Ten Is Stumbling Block.

By L. C. Martin
By United Press Leased Wire

Washington.—Indications of the difficulties that must be overcome before the senate can reach a compromise on article X of the league of nations covenant were seen today in rejection by Senator Hitchcock of a widely heralded "compromise" submitted by mild reservationists. Hitchcock declared that its acceptance by democrats would involve an even more abject surrender than acceptance of the original Lodge reservation.

The proposed compromise modification of the Lodge reservation which Lodge was declared by mild reservationists to have accepted provides that "the United States assumes no obligation to preserve by the use of its military or naval forces or by the economic boycott or by any other means the territorial integrity and political independence of any other nation," etc.

It differs from the original Lodge reservation in the addition of the words "by the use of its military or naval forces or by the economic boycott or by any other means." In the opinion of many senators it is a great deal more drastic and unbending than the original Lodge reservation.

"That proposal would rob us of every weapon we could use under article X," said Senator Hitchcock. He said it could not be considered for a minute.

The mild reservationists said that in spite of Hitchcock's attitude they had assurance of democratic votes. But it was considerably doubtful that enough democrats would support it to insure its acceptance, inasmuch as it is conceded the much milder Lodge reservation could not command the necessary democratic support.

"Many substitutes will be offered before we get one that will prove acceptable," Senator Hitchcock predicted. Practically all the other leaders speak confidently but Hitchcock, when asked as to his view of the prospects, replied:

"I don't know."

ACQUIT SIX MEN IN RAIL RIDING CASE

POSTAL CLERKS STEAL CHECKS FOR SOLDIERS

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Six persons accused of stealing checks to soldiers dependents from the mails were held today by federal authorities here. The government believes a nation-wide gang existed for the purpose of working the fraud.

Two of these held were postal clerks and are alleged to have taken soldiers' insurance payments, allotments, for injuries and death payments from the mails and their confederates cashed the checks.

Byron B. Parks and Henry A. Western, negro postal clerks, confessed to the conspiracy following their arrest. Federal officers declared.

has been arranged as yet among the fraternities for Near East relief. A class of 16 candidates was initiated at the gathering. The athletic association had planned an entertainment for this meeting, but found it necessary to postpone it until next week. However, the entertainment feature was ably carried out by Miss Mildred Rapprager of Neenah, a student in the Lawrence school of expression. She delighted the Elk members with a series of splendid readings. A luncheon was also served.

Lawrence J. Sommer returned yesterday from a business trip to Galesburg and other nearby towns.

"Guiding Principles in Choosing a Life Work" will be the topic of an address at the meeting Friday night. A banquet will precede the program. Visiting delegates will be entertained by members of the Hi-Y club during their stay here.

At the outbreak of hostilities, they were transferred to Switzerland and about three years ago the United States Salvation Army welcomed them as second in command of the western states. ## MASTER BUILDERS TO FIX SCALE OF WAGES

MEETING WILL BE HELD HERE SATURDAY TO DISCUSS WAGES IN FOX RIVER VALLEY CITIES

A meeting of the Master Builders association of the Fox river valley will be held in Appleton Saturday at which time it is expected that a uniform wage scale for masons and carpenters for the coming season will be reached.

Masons and carpenters of Green Bay, Appleton, Oshkosh and Fond du Lac are demanding an increase from the contractors varying slightly in the different cities. An effort will be made to strike a fair average which will be uniform throughout the valley.

O. H. Ubricht, state secretary, will attend the session and will be the principal speaker. Other matters pertaining to the general welfare of the building proposition will be taken up. The indications are that the meeting will be well attended.

INTERLAKERS OVERWHELM OSHKOSH MILITARY MEN

The Interlakes backed Company B Oshkosh clean off the boards last night and vindicated their past defeat when they ran up a score of 71 to 8 in last night's basketball game at the armory. Either the Oshkosh' five had lost its pep or some of its talent, for it seemed like a grand walkaway after the beginning of the second half.

Friday night the Interlakes will play the Turners of Green Bay at the Y. M. C. A.

RIPON AND LAWRENCE CLASH TOMORROW NIGHT

Ripon and Lawrence college basketball teams will clash at Alexander gymnasium tomorrow night in what promises to be one of the fastest intercollegiate games of the season. On the outcome rests the Blue and White chances to stay in the conference race. A defeat will put Coach Beyer's men back in the running, as the visitors have won from every team in the conference, Lawrence included.

Coach Beyer's quintet has put in the hardest work of the season this week in preparation for the battle, and is confident of giving the Red and White a stiff argument.

Waterpool and Lean will start the game at seven, with Nomington at center. Larson and Basing will probably hold down the forward positions.

WANT STRANGE TO BE G. O. P. DELEGATE

Nomination papers are being circulated in Neenah and Menasha to place Hon. John Strange on the primary ticket as candidate for delegate at large to the national republican convention. His prominence in the state and activity in political affairs have led the Twin Cities to place him on the ticket and it is thought that he will receive a generous endorsement.

WOMAN'S CLUB WILL HOLD SOCIAL MEET

FIRST SOCIAL GATHERING OF NEW CLUB IS PLANNED FOR NEXT TUESDAY AT HIGH SCHOOL

The first social session of the Appleton Woman's club will be held Tuesday night, Feb. 17, at the Appleton high school gymnasium. Heretofore the meetings of the club have been business meetings, and it is the plan of the committee in charge to make this first "get together" a real success. The affair will be entirely informal and is being given to bring the members closer together.

Mrs. George Woelz is chairman of the committee. Various sub-committees have been appointed. Mrs. Stephen Rosebush is chairman of entertainment committee; Mrs. Carl Schütz, decoration; Miss Evelyn Van Stratum, refreshments; Mrs. William Zuehlke, arrangements. The other members of the committee are Mesdames D. J. O'Connor, A. H. Krugmeier, C. A. Green, R. M. Bagg, Leonard Graef, George Pratt, I. B. Wood, B. A. Munger, Caroline Tinkham, J. L. Wolfe, and James Wood, and the Mesdames Rose Lyons and Jean Jackson.

OPEN TICKET SALE FOR BAND CONCERT

FAMOUS HARPISIT WILL ADD TO EXCELLENCE OF THE PROGRAM—LOOK FOR BIG CROWD.

The ticket sale for the concert to be given by the Ninth Regimental band at Lawrence Memorial chapel will open tomorrow morning. Indications point to a capacity audience.

The presence of Miss Athel Lindorff, harpist, on the program, is arousing much favorable comment. Miss Lindorff, one of the leading harpists of the country, will appear on the program for two numbers.

"Miss Lindorff will be a feature of the program," Lieut. F. H. Jøbe, director of the band, stated this morning. "She comes highly recommended, and is sure to win the audience by her work. Critics are unanimous in their praise."

"The harp numbers by Athel Lindorff were exquisite, and her mastery of the graceful musical instrument with her power of expression and perfect technique made her contribution to the program one of the most attractive, and won for her the unstinted applause of her charmed auditors," says a dispatch from Rock Island, Ill., where Miss Lindorff recently appeared. She is now touring the country with the Redpath chautauqua.

ment. The Aldermanic form was favored because, union men claim, it is more democratic and gives workers direct representation the same as the state and national governments. A resolution was also passed favoring the amendment relative to increase of salaries of state legislators which is to be voted upon at the spring election. Unions that have held meetings within the last few days reported subscriptions amounting to $125 for the Near East Relief commission. This amount will be increased by other unions at their regular meetings.

Dr. H. E. Peabody was present and extended an invitation to members to hear Graham Taylor at the Congregational church next Sunday. The invitation was accepted and all union men were requested to meet at the Trades and Labor hall in the afternoon to attend the address.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN—A NEW INSIDE VIEW

BY JUDGE R. M. WANAMAKER
Of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

A distinguished and successful business man once said: "I was born to a condition I would not accept. I changed it." The spirit of these last three words manned the Mayflower, wrote the Declaration of Independence, made America, and our great Americans. It is peculiarly the ruling spirit of Abraham Lincoln.

Born in a Kentucky cabin that was doorless, floorless, and windowless, truly he was Humanity's child, but he became Humanity's man, how? How did he become the leading lawyer of his bar, the party leader of his state, the orator of his people and the statesman of his age? Herndon, his law partner for more than sixteen years, knew him most intimately and wrote of him: "His conscience, his heart, and the faculties and qualities of his mind bowed submissively to the despotism of his reason. He lived and acted from the standard of reason—that throne of logic, home of principle, the realm of deity and man. It is from this point Mr. Lincoln must be viewed."

Thousands of volumes have been written, tens of thousands of speeches have been made on the "outside" of Lincoln. As yet very little has been written or spoken about the "inside" of Lincoln. God Almighty seems to have exhausted all nature's resources on the inside equipment of Lincoln. There was little left for outside finish. The story of how Lincoln developed his mental and moral forces, and how he mobilized and used them in action, should be of peculiar interest to all Americans, young and old. Let Lincoln himself tell this story as he did in 1860, before his nomination to the presidency. The more pertinent part is as follows: "I could not sleep although I tried to, when I got on such a hunt for an idea, until I had caught it; and when I thought I had got it, I was not satisfied until I had repeated it over and over again, until I had put it in language plain enough as I thought for any boy I knew to comprehend. This was a kind of passion with me, and it has stuck by me; for I am never easy now when I am handling a thought, until I have bounded it north, bounded it south, bounded it east and bounded it west."

Lincoln was a student in school but six months, according to his own statement, but he was a student out of school all the rest of his life. He was his own teacher—his own pupil. What a pupil! What results! This brief interview furnishes to the student, young and old, his four great commandments to knowledge and reasons:

Commandment 1. "Hunted for an idea until I had caught it." The passion of the hunter that pursues the game until captured.

Commandment 2. "Repeated it over and over again." Study it. Assimilate it—to utilize it.

Commandment 3. "Put it in language plain enough for any boy I knew to comprehend." Simplicity and strength of speech. He got it chiefly from the Bible. Bunyon's Pilgrim's Progress, Aesop, De Foe, the dictionary.

Lincoln avoided superlatives, and polysyllables, and used a simple, short word—the concrete noun hitched to an active verb. See Gettysburg speech.

Commandment 4. "Bounded at North, bounded at South, bounded at East, bounded at West." This sounds like a lesson in geography. It is language of the surveyor. Lincoln became a surveyor at 23, and he surveyed lots of lands, so also he surveyed ideas with the chart and compass of his keen analytic mind.

These Lincoln rules for mental and moral conduct on studying any given situation, its fundamental facts, its primary principles, can be appropriated and assimilated and then applied by any average American student. They furnish the key to his very great efficiency, which made him the master of every situation in which he was placed as man, as lawyer, as debator, as leader, as statesman. This enabled him to understand men and measures, for he surveyed them both before he pronounced judgment.

Lincoln was a man of passions. His two primary, paramount passions were: First—A passion for knowledge.

Second—A passion for justice.

Every question submitted to him was first tried out in God's court, the court of conscience. It was there he first tried out the cause of all his clients. It was there he first tried out the cause of slavery. If the court of conscience decided against his cause, that was the end of the whole matter. If it decided in his favor, he then took the cause to the court of reason. Here his personal likes and dislikes were disregarded, nothing but the substantial facts of fact, reason, and right and the public good were to be considered.

The design of this article is to stimulate a further study of Lincoln and to the subsoil of his mind and conscience. To that end, we suggest a further outline along intellectual and ethical lines, as follows: Say a trip with Lincoln on his thought train, stopping at these seven great stations of life—stations that he stopped at and studied every situation in which he was confronted for action:

1. Deliberation.
2. Decision.
3. Declaration.
4. Definition.
5. Demonstration.
6. Dedication.
7. Democracy.

An analytic as well as synthetic study of Lincoln at these seven stations will give us a better understanding of the war and woof of the man, which he daily wove into his personal, professional and public conduct.

THE CASE OF KENTUCKY.

It is long stretch from Plymouth Rock to Bowling Green, from Fancu Hall to the Kentucky capital, yet the new found spirit of Kentucky might as well have been fathered by Coolidge. It is made of the same indomitable stuff. It is the spirit of Bunker Hill.

A few days ago a Kentucky negro killed a child. It was a foul and abhorrent crime, naturally tending to arouse the strongest feeling of vengeance in the minds of the people. The police authorities arrested a negro who was thought to be guilty. His actual guilt could not be safely determined without a hearing. While that hearing was in progress a crowd of Kentucky men gathered, marched to the court house and announced in effect, that they, a mob, had, upon their own initiative, and solely at their own request, taken over the government of the state of Kentucky and were bent upon dealing out punishment to the negro. On its way to the court house the mob smashed in hardware stores and other shops whenever it thought there was a chance to get firearms. Did it pay for what it took? A mob never pays. A mob merely confiscates or destroys.

Emerson has said that "Every mob is possessed of the devil." And this mob was no exception. The authorities, anticipating some such action, had members of the National Guard stationed around the court house to insure and protect the orderly process of the law. True, the accused was only a negro, humble, poor and without friends. True, too, as it turned out, he was guilty of a most atrocious crime; but he nevertheless was entitled to a hearing and a judicial determination of his guilt, regardless of his race or color or poverty. It was not only his privilege to have such a hearing and to be dealt with upon the same basis as other citizens, but it was the positive duty of the government to see that this negro was dealt with in the manner provided by the law. Punishment for crime is inherently a governmental function.

The mob, like all irresponsible things, was willing to efface every fundamental and sacred principle in order to satisfy its desire for vengeance, to fill a shuddering black form with lead. The state, like every orderly and responsible thing, was determined that the negro was going to be given a fair trial and punished if found guilty. But the state saw beyond this particular black man. It saw that if a mob is privileged to take into its own hands and summarily wreck vengeance on a negro, there is no good reason why it should stop there. It has as good a right to treat others as it would treat the negro, to go to your home, throw you and yours out and give your home to another, or to make you turn over for its own gratification and pleasure your savings bank account.

This mob had not reckoned with the new spirit that law and order shall prevail, both as to property and life as well. The soldiers waved the mob back. The mob came on. Officers warned the mob

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright, 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

Eager to Save Chrys, Bob and I Remain to Search For Her.

"God bless the lot of you," I thought you were all dead! was Morrison's greeting. I knew him from the flavor of his language. Outwardly he seemed like a very dirty, swarthy, well-fed Mexican. "Let me count you," he continued. "Mrs. Lorimer—and her husband—Gene Archer—and Jordan Spence. Your father is in the auto, Bob. An armored car it is, sir. If you are ready, we'll move on."

"Chrys?" I exclaimed. "Now, Mrs. Lorimer, will you listen to reason. I can't hold this ranch for long, you know, except by a miracle. And one miracle has happened already today. We looked at the detective in vast astonishment."

"The earthquake!" he said. "It stopped the fight! I thought we were getting on famous, when all of a sudden the enemy ceased firing, came from cover, and ran away from the house off into the back fields! I was too busy myself to notice the shake. At first I thought they had run out of bullets. The quake is over, I guess, still they don't come back."

I remembered Morrison's remonstration and warning. After the first tremors were over he had insisted that the earthquake was coming. I told the story—and begged the men to take care of Certeis.

"Let his own people find him," said Morrison. "We've got to vamoose."

"Can't you take him away as a prisoner?" ventured Archer. "And why should I be doing that?" inquired Morrison. "No, gents, I ain't down here to get tangled up in international politics. I came to get you, and now I've got you, we'll vamoose, as I said."

"But—Chrys?" I repeated. "If we stay to save the young lady, we'll all be in deep," explained the detective. "There's a line from this hacienda direct to the seat of this government. They wired for troops—and the troops are on the way. It ain't such a long way, as I could wish, either. The soldiers will be here in autos, inside of two hours. Now I ask what you gents intending to do? And before you answer, I'll tell you what I'm going to do. I guess that not being a handit, and not being a Mexican—only being dressed up as one, the best thing I can do is to take my party away from here. I came to Mexico to keep the peace, not to bring on a war, gents."

"Chrys?" I repeated. "Jane, you are going to do what you are told, for once in your life," said my husband. "You are going with Morrison. I will stay here and hunt up my sister."

"I stay, too," said Jordan Spence. "And I'll make a dash toward Vera Cruz with the rest of the folk," announced Morrison. "Your father's yacht has been cruising off shore for a week. We'll board her—and hang around for a while. We'll wait for you to fetch your sister, though how in hell you're ever going to get her out of here—and over to the coast, is more than I can see."

"If you see any sense in my leaving some of my men, they are at your service," he concluded.

"We'll go it alone?" said Bob to Jordan Spence. Then they shook hands. I was awfully depressed. I looked at Bob's long time; suddenly a bit of inspiration came to me. I pulled his head down and whispered my plan to him.

Bob never was a diplomat but he knows a romantic plot when he hears one. "Don Manuel?" he exclaimed. "Jane! Jane! I guess you've fixed things—once more!" (To Be Continued)

FEBRUARY TWELFTH, 1809

A equid village set in wintry mud. A hub-deep ox-cart slowly groans and squeaks. A horseman hails and halts. He shifts his cud And speaks—

"Well, did you hear? Tom Lincoln's wife; today. The devil's luck for folks as poor as they!"

Poor Tom! poor Nance! Poor young one! born without a chance:

"A baby in that God-forsaken den, That worse than cattle-pen!"

Still, what are they but cattle. Cattle? Tut! A ceter is beef, hide and tallow, but Who'd swap one for the creatures of that hut?

White trash! small fry, Whose only instinct is to multiply!

"They're good at that, And so today, Got wot, another brat!"

A puking, squalling, red-faced good-for-naught Spilled on the world, heaven only knows for what.

Better if he were black, For then I'd have a son up on his back And something in his belly, as he grows—

More than he's like to have, as I suppose. "Yet there be those

Who claim 'equality' for this new brat, And that damned Democrat

Whot squats today where Washington once sat. He'd have it that this Lincoln cub might be Of even value in the world with you and me!

"Yes Jefferson, Tom Jefferson. Who but he? Who even hints that black niggers should be free. That feather-headed fool would tell you, maybe, A president might be in this new baby!"

In this new squawker, born without a rag To hide himself! Good God, it makes me gag!

This beggar-spawn Born for a world to wipe its feet upon

A few years hence, but now More helpless than the litter of a sow!

And—Oh, well! send the women folks to Nance. Poor little devil! born without a chance!

that guns were loaded and would be used. The mob had heard those things before. It was bent on violating the very principle upon which the government is based. That sort of an inclination needs a strong medicine. Satisfied that the mob could not be held back in any other manner, the order to fire was given and five members of the mob were killed and eighteen wounded. As the guns were fired a jury had found the negro guilty and the court had sentenced him to death. Much as we all deplore the spilling of blood upon an occasion such as this, it were better, far better, that blood be spilled than that the government surrender its sovereign powers to a mob.

THE PASSER BY
True wit is nature to advantage dressed
What oft was that, but ne'er so well expressed.

THE WAY OF A MAN
Before Marriage
He carried flowers and diamond rings
To please that dazzling belle;
And caramels and other things
That damsels love so well.

He would sit for hours upon a chair
And hold her on his knees;
He blew his money here and there
As if it grew on trees.

"If I had half what you are worth,"
He used to say, "My Sweet,
I'd put a shawl strap 'round the earth
And lay it at your feet."

He had no other tho't it seemed,
Than just to please her heart,
And everything of which she dreamed
He purchased at the mart.

"When we are spliced," he used to say,
"You'll have all you desire—
A gold mine or a load of hay,
A dashound or a lyre.

My one great aim of life will be to make
You life a thing of joy,
So haste and to the altar take
Your little Clarence boy."

And so she tho't she'd drawn a peach,
When they were wed in June;
Alas! how oft we reach for plums
And only get a prune!

After Marriage
"And so you want another hat?"
He thundered to his frau:
"Just tell me what is wrong with that.
The hat you're wearing now!

No wonder that I have the blues,
The way the money goes.
Last week you blew yourself for shoes,
Next week you'll want new clothes!

I wish you were like other wives
And would like them to believe
It is the object of my life
To help their husbands save.

All day I'm in the business fight,
And strain my heart and soul,
And when I journey home at night
You touch me for my roll.

You want a $20 hat
To hold your topknot down,
Or else a new Angora cat,
A lap dog or a gown.

You're awake at night and think
Of things you'd like to buy,
And when I draw a little chink
You surely make it fly.

With such a wife as you, I say,
A husband has no chance;
You pull his starboard limb by day
And rob his pants by night.

"My sainted mother, when she dwelt
In this sad vale of tears,
Had one old hid of cloth or felt
She wore for thirty years.

She helped my father all the time
And pickled every bone,
And when she had to blow a dime
It made her weep and moan.

The hat you wear is good as new,
'Twill do another year—
So don't stand round the rag to chew,
I'm busy now, my dear."

Mrs. George Thurlow Evens.

Little satisfaction as there is in being laughed at when slipping and falling upon the ice these chilly days, still there is a modicum of comfort in the thought that a fat man produces just as much laughter and probably falls just a little harder.

Speaking of ice, isn't it about time for the amalgamated and associated ice companies throughout the country to begin talking about higher prices for next summer, the reason being the scarcity of the crop, the increased cost of labor, the increased demand, and the desire for an increased bank account?

We care not who writes the nation's laws if they will let us right the nation's clocks beginning about the first of April.

Hasn't Cuba more right to it than England?

St. Vitus Dance and Credulity.

Chorea, or St. Vitus' dance, as it is more commonly known, is a disease quite common in childhood. It is apparently caused by bacterial infection of the nervous system, infection gaining entrance in most cases through the throat—the disease often follows or complicates quinsy, scarlet fever, acute multiple arthritis (so-called inflammatory rheumatism or rheumatic fever) and other infections originating in the throat. In St. Vitus' dance there is the same tendency towards lodgment of some of the causative germs on the lining of the heart, especially the portion of the lining covering some of the heart valves, and a consequent heart lining inflammation (endocarditis) or valvular distortion and subsequent valvular leakage. This accident or complication may occur painlessly and indeed without the knowledge of patient or guardian, though not without the knowledge of the attending physician if there be an attending physician.

Right here is where the cruelty of ignorance is manifest. Too often there is no attending physician, but instead a series of experiments, a constantly changing series of "trial treatments" by Tom, Dick and Harry, at the earnest behest of every busybody, every gossip who happens along. Of course there is no method of treatment, no remedy known which may be honestly called a cure for St. Vitus' dance, and least of all the charms and fol-de-rol too often exploited.

Any parent or guardian who fails to provide medical attendance throughout the duration of an attack of St. Vitus' dance be it six weeks or six months or three years, is not true to his trust. It is a nice problem, a delicate technical question in each individual case whether the child should be at rest in bed, at rest in chair; at play, or receiving special treatment which the individual condition may require. Not only to conserve the child's strength and favor an early recovery, but to guard against the danger of serious involvement of the heart and permanent handicap thereby, it is demanded that medical attendance shall be provided as regularly as may be advisable throughout such an illness.

Yet, ignorant of all this, reckless of the child's welfare, gullible and credulous as any poor variety of the middle ages, the parent or guardian so often listens to the blandishments of plausible fakers and subjects the pitiable little patient to one experiment after another, forever searching for that "sure cure" which, if these irresponsible people could only understand, does not exist.

No wonder St. Vitus' dance is such a discouraging malady. Typhoid fever would be so, if managed so crudely.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Neuritis.
I have been troubled for some time with neuritis. What do you advise for such cases? (E. J. K.)

ANSWER:—From your letter it would seem that you imagine neuritis is a definite disease. Many people have a similar idea. Neuritis means inflammation of a nerve—not neuralgia. Injury, poisons, like lead, arsenic, alcohol, tobacco, wood alcohol, may produce neuritis. It affords a doctor no clue to know that you have neuritis, you should mention which nerve is involved, or which nerves. If more than one is involved, the duration, your occupation, and a number of other indispensable facts, if he is to make any effort to determine the nature of your trouble and apply helpful treatment. Of course I can't do that without having personally examined the patient. No doctor can diagnose or intelligently treat patients with neuritis or other serious trouble unless he has personally examined them.

Maybe a Philadelphia Lawyer.
Has any one ever broken his neck trying to turn somersaults? I am afraid to attempt the thing. I am 46 years old. (F.)

ANSWER:—Yet you are a New York lawyer. Maybe a Philadelphia lawyer would break his neck trying to roll one, but to date no death certificates duly attested have been filed at this office. Somersaults break down a man's dignity, his false unhygienic dignity, something scandalous; sometimes they break the plaster of the ceiling below; otherwise it doesn't break anything except the habit of being old.

Sugar.
An insurance examiner rejected me for a life insurance policy because of high blood pressure and some sugar in the urine. I am 29 years old, weigh 195 to 200 pounds, and supposed I was in perfect health. I do eat a large amount of sweet stuff and always have. Can you suggest a diet for diabetes? (B. E.)

ANSWER:—Any manipulation of the diet in such a disease must be adjusted to the individual patient; amounts of starch or fats suitable for A may be inadequate for B or dangerously excessive for C. The mere finding of sugar in the urine does not warrant a diagnosis of diabetes, unless the intake of carbohydrate foods is kept within normal limitations.

turn as well as the partnership return.

"A salary paid by the firm to a member of such firm becomes a part of the taxable income of the member receiving such salary and can be claimed as a deduction in the partnership return. It however is not a proper deduction in the members individual return."

"Dividends or a distribution of the profits of the firm however, are proper deductions in the individual returns of the receiving members."

"The above method of reporting and taxing prevents any possibility of any portion of the income of the partnerships (other in the partnership of individuals report) from being taxed more than once."

"Partnership or trade losses resulting from business transacted or from ownership of property outside the state cannot be claimed as a deduction in cases where the profit, if any had been made could not have been taxed."

WEEK PASSES WITHOUT A FIRE IN APPLETON
Yesterday completed a week in which not one call was received by the fire department, and the company members are hoping that Appleton's good fortune will continue. Usually the winter season is not so strikingly peaceful as it has proven here, in view of what neighboring cities have experienced, but precaution will make the department's record continue so.

2 ARMENIAN ORPHANS HAVE BEEN ADOPTED

CHRISTIAN MOTHERS AND CONGREGATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS AID IN RELIEF DRIVE

Adopting Armenian orphans is proving a popular way of aiding in Near East Relief in Appleton. Already the Christian Mothers of St. Joseph church and a Sunday school class of the First Congregational church have voted to undertake the support of one orphan each. This costs $50 which is the estimated cost of feeding and clothing one child for a year. Other organizations are contemplating similar moves, and in some instances where the group is too small to pledge that amount of money, they are accepting the maintenance of a child for a portion of a year, which is also permitted by the committee in charge.

There is no doubt that the people will be in a receptive state of mind when the actual pledging of money starts Sunday, and the canvass proper is made February 16, 17 and 18. Appleton people believe the cause is one that Appleton should not regard lightly. The educational work done thus far has clearly had its effect in educating the local people to the actual conditions. Literature circulated throughout the county the past week is expected to have the same effect.

Tomorrow afternoon the fraternal organizations of the city will line up for an aggressive campaign among their members. A meeting has been called by F. J. Rooney, chairman of this section of the drive, for three o'clock Friday afternoon at the City hall. At least one representative from each lodge or other fraternal organization is expected to be present. The publicity committee has practically completed its work of distributing literature and placing posters, and other committees are busily engaged so that when next week arrives, the campaign will be prosecuted with vigor that will carry Outagamie county well "over the top."

COLLEGE WRESTLERS BLANK HOLY NAME MEN

COLUMBIA HALL GRAPPLERS FAIL TO WIN BOUT BUT COLLEGIANS ARE FORCED TO WORK HARD

The Lawrence college wrestling team defeated the Holy Name society team in a dual meet last night at Lawrence gym before a good sized crowd by a score of 61 to 0. This score does not represent the relative strength of the two teams as the Holy Name team put up the best argument against the collegians that they have encountered on the local floor this year. Seven points are awarded for a match in which there has been a fall and six points for a match won by two decisions.

Allison, who has won all of his matches in quick time this year had to wrestle seven minutes for a draw with Smith but won his second bout by a fall in 3:10 in the 115 pound class. Atkinson was also forced to wrestle seven minutes for a decision in his first bout with Brautigan in the 125 pound class, but the Lawrence man won the second bout by a fall in 3:25. In the other bout in this class Schimlichter won two seven minute decisions from Francis Caze, who is managing the Holy Name team.

The two bouts in the 135 pound class were won by Lawrence when Carroll won two falls from Winne- nann in 3:05 and 3:10 and McCourt defeated Kettnerhofen by a fall in and a seven minute decision. Swanton defeated Kober in a promenade in the 145 pound class in which he finally walked his opponent to a decision at the end of seventeen minutes.

In the 155 pound class Thomas defeated John Caze by two falls in 2:25 and 2:29. Nowak also won out in this class from Jettner by a seven minute decision and a fall in 6:13. Captain Wundrow defeated Kuenzle in the unlimited class by two falls in 2:03 and 0:35.

Mr. Riner of Oconto Falls refereed the bouts. The Holy Name team is scheduled to wrestle against the Y. M. C. A. team in the near future.

By United Press Leased Wire

"Discussion of the probable fate of this bill and of its effects if, by some extraordinary chance, it were to be enacted into a law, overshadowed all other trade features during the week," the Review continues.

"Lynching under any circumstances or conditions is a crime," Hays said. "It is a crime against judgment and justice, reason and righteousness. It is an assault on our most sacred institutions. It merits the exhortation of every high minded citizen and should not occur."

Lloyd George Gives Notice That Great Britain Will Fight Any Effort to Force Minority Control

By United Press Leased Wire
London.—Great Britain will fight any attempt to force minority rule as advocated by proponents of nationalization of industry, Premier Lloyd George told the house of commons last night.

The so-called nationalization amendment, the premier said, "challenges the fabric of free government." Its advocates, he added, propose a minority rule if a majority in favor of their contention is unobtainable.

The premier's statement was taken as a direct answer to trade union demands for nationalization of mines and railways.

Commons showed its support of the premier by defeating, 229 to 64, the labor amendment to the reply to King George's speech which proposed to insert a clause specifying regret that the king's program did not include nationalization of mines.

The Milking Problem Solved

Urgent Need for Milking Machines

THE shortage of milk, butter and cheese has so increased the demand for dairy products that there is more activity in dairying than ever before. Due to the European shortage of dairy cows, prices will continue at a high level for several years to come.

The cow owner's biggest problem is that of help. And the biggest part of the help problem on the dairy farm is getting the milking done. The right kind of milking machine will be a godsend to thousands of dairymen.

The De Laval Milker is the Answer

Because it is a milker any farmer can operate. There's nothing complicated about it; nothing to get out of order. It is the simplest and most dependable milker.

Because the alternate action, the unvarying speed, the Udder Pulsator, the self-adjusting teat-cups are all pleasing to the cow and actually induce a large milk flow and a long lactation period.

Because it is a tried and tested De Laval product. Wherever cows are milked the world over, the name "De Laval" stands for quality and honest value to the user. The man who buys a De Laval Milker can ask for no stronger guarantee that it will give him the service claimed for it than the fact that it bears the name "De Laval."

MORE THAN 17 MILLION OF THESE LITTLE SOLDIERS WENT ON DUTY LAST YEAR

If Placed End to End, the Packages of Vick's VapoRub Used Last Year Would Reach from New York to Philadelphia, to Pittsburgh, to Cleveland, to Detroit—a Distance of 701 Miles

Vick's VapoRub

is a Real "Little Bodyguard" Against Croup and Cold Troubles in Literally Millions of American Homes

What is Vicks?

Vicks is the invention of a North Carolina druggist, Mr. L. Richardson. During his years of experience behind the prescription counter, Mr. Richardson came to realize the need for some effective and convenient method of treating diseases of the respiratory organs, such as spasmodic croup, pneumonia, bronchitis, etc. The only way to get medication directly to these parts is in vapor form, since internal medicines go only to the stomach.

Mr. Richardson finally worked out a process of combining the standard, time-tested remedies—Camphor, Menthol, Turpentine, Oil of Eucalyptus, etc.—in salve form, so that when applied to the body, the ingredients would be vaporized by the body heat. This preparation he called Vick's VapoRub.

How Vicks Acts

The action of Vicks is two-fold:

1st—Internal—the vapors released carry the medication with each breath from the air passages to the lungs, loosening the phlegm and clearing the air passages.

2nd—External—Vicks is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, attracting the blood to the affected parts, and thus aids the vapors inhaled to relieve the congestion.

This double action of Vicks makes it useful for a wide variety of troubles, from deep chest colds, bronchitis, coughs, spasmodic croup and sore throat, down to burns, stings, bruises, etc.

How the Use of Vicks Has Grown

The best evidence of the value of Vicks is the increasing number of families who are converted each year to the use of this real "Little Bodyguard in the Home". The number of jars used annually for the last few years is:

|      |                 |
|------|-----------------|
| 1910 | 347,748 Jars    |
| 1911 | 523,152 Jars    |
| 1912 | 1,027,068 Jars  |
| 1913 | 1,357,590 Jars  |
| 1914 | 1,462,330 Jars  |
| 1915 | 2,418,213 Jars  |
| 1916 | 4,302,764 Jars  |
| 1917 | 6,799,511 Jars  |
| 1918 | 17,377,408 Jars |

Directions For the Use of Vicks

VAPORS IMPORTANT For diseases of the respiratory organs, such as colds, a large part of the value of Vicks lies in its vaporizing quality. Therefore, whenever Vicks is applied to the throat and chest, care should be taken to leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a tunnel, so that the vapors arising may be freely inhaled.

HOT WET CLOTHS. In cases of very severe colds, sore throat, coughs, incipient pneumonia, etc., hot, wet towels should be applied to the throat and chest to open the pores of the skin before applying Vicks.

FRESH AIR. Plenty of fresh air in the bed room is the best way to prevent colds and lung troubles. Fresh air does not cause colds; it strengthens the lungs, enabling the system to throw off colds.

ASTHMA. Vicks is not a "cure" for asthma—so far as we know, there is no cure. In many cases, however, Vicks does give relief. Rub it well over the spinal column, from the neck to the hips to relieve the nervous tension. Then apply freely over throat and chest at bed time and cover with hot flannels. Renew frequently and always have the covers loose, so that the vapors may be freely inhaled. Also melt Vicks in a spoon and inhale the vapors and apply a little up the nostrils.

BRONCHITIS, SORE THROAT, COLDS IN THE CHEST. If a severe case, first apply hot, wet towels over the throat and chest. Then rub Vicks in well until the skin is red, spread on thickly and cover with the thickness of hot flannel cloths.

CATARH, COLDS IN THE HEAD. Melt a little Vicks in a spoon and inhale the vapors. Also apply well up the nostrils. There are so many varieties of catarrh that a competent physician should always be consulted. For many forms, however, Vicks is excellent. Dissolve a teaspoonful of salt in a pint of warm water and sniff up the nostrils night and morning. Then insert Vicks freely up the nostrils as far as possible, snuffing well back into the air passages.

CHILDREN'S COLDS. Vicks is particularly valuable in treating children's colds, since it is an external treatment, and therefore does not disturb the delicate digestions of children. The best plan is to keep Vicks constantly on hand and apply freely and often at the first sign of "sniffles."

Growing children require plenty of fresh air and exercise and should be kept in the open as much as possible, even in the winter.

COUGHS. Apply Vicks as directed for Colds in the Chest and Head, and if the cough is very annoying, swallow every few hours, a small piece the size of a pea.

CROUP-SPASMODIC. Rub Vicks freely over the chest and throat until the difficult breathing is relieved. One application is usually enough. To prevent croup during the night, give a good application over the throat and chest at bed time and cover with hot flannel cloths.

NOTE: Vicks is not a relief for Membranous Croup or Laryngeal Diphtheria. The specific for this disease is antitoxin, which should be administered only by a physician.

HAY FEVER. There is no certain cure for this disease. In some cases Vicks gives temporary relief. Apply as for Asthma.

INFLUENZA. In spite of the epidemic last winter, very little is known of this disease—even the germ causing it is not yet definitely located and no specific for influenza, so far as we know, has been discovered. In all cases a physician should be called promptly.

Vicks is to be used as an external application in connection with the physician's treatment. Apply as directed for Pneumonia.

TO AVOID INFLUENZA. Influenza is a split-brain disease, and when inhaled the germs attack the mucous membrane, or lining of the air passages. Even this is not absolutely certain, but it is agreed by most authorities that keeping the system in good condition and the air passages stimulated and free from colds is the best way to avoid the disease.

Melting a little Vicks in a spoon night and morning and inhaling the vapors, and applying well up the nostrils several times a day, particularly when in crowds, is recommended.

PNEUMONIA. (1) Send for your physician at the first sign of pneumonia. (2) Immediately begin the use of Vicks as an external application. For pneumonia, Vicks is applied somewhat as directed for Deep Chest Colds—for full directions see the Directions Folder.

TONSILITIS. Apply as directed for Sore Throat.

WHOOPING COUGH. This is a self-limited disease, running course which varies from a few weeks to several months. There is no known specific. Vicks is of value in easing the cough, paroxysms, and thus lessening their weakening effect on the system. Rub Vicks well over the spinal column, from the neck to the hips to relieve the nervous tension. Then apply over throat and chest, covering with hot flannels.

For Surface Congestion and Inflammation.

In cases such as are listed below, Vicks is of value as a positive, liniment or plaster, because of its penetrating and stimulating effect through the skin. Its vaporizing qualities are naturally without value for these troubles.

RITES, STINGS. Apply ordinary household ammonia or wet bread soda. Then apply Vicks as a salve. BURNS. Apply cloths, dipped in hot water, to soften the skin; then apply Vicks thickly over the burn, covering with a thin cloth. Repeat every few hours.

BRUISES. Apply to the bruised part cloths dipped in hot water followed by cloths dipped in cold water—then hot cloths, then cold cloths again, etc. Keep this up for five or ten minutes to reduce the inflammation. Then apply Vicks thickly, covering with a light cloth. Every few hours repeat the application of the hot and cold cloths, followed by a dressing of Vicks.

BURNS. Cover first with wet bread soda. When dry, take off and apply Vicks as a thick dressing, covering with a light cloth. Apply as gently as possible and do not rub in.

CUTS. Cleanse the cut well with warm water, then apply Vicks as a salve.

EARACHE. In some cases of earache Vicks gives relief. Apply a little on cotton and place in the ear.

ECZEMA-ITCHINGS. In many cases these are blood diseases and should be treated by a competent physician. To reduce the itching, and as a cooling, soothing application, apply Vicks over the parts affected, covering with a light cloth. In severe cases do not wash the parts often; water irritates certain forms of eczema.

FRONT RITE. Rub the parts affected with snow or apply ice water until the blood begins to circulate. Then rub Vicks well in; do not cover with a cloth. Do not bring the parts affected near a fire.

HEADACHE, NEURALGIA. Rub the forehead and temples with Vicks, melt a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors, apply a little well up the nostrils. Headaches come from many causes; they are symptoms of more serious troubles, usually faulty digestion or eye strain. If headaches are continuous, a physician or a good oculist should be consulted.

MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM, SORENESS, STRAINS, SPRAINS. For these troubles, alternating applications of hot and cold cloths should be applied as directed for Bruises. Then massage well the parts affected with Vicks, cover thickly and apply hot, flannel cloths. In cases of muscular rheumatism or extreme muscular pain, after following the directions above, a hot water bottle or a warm flat iron may be placed over the flannel cloth to help drive in the Vicks.

POISON OAK. Wash the parts affected with water colored with a pinch of bluestone; put in just enough bluestone to faintly color the water. Be careful not to get this bluestone water in the eyes. (If bluestone is not convenient, use ordinary lime water.) Then apply Vicks lightly; do not rub in. Repeat this treatment, using the bluestone water and Vicks every three or four hours.

SUNBURN. Apply Vicks as a salve. Do not rub in.

TOOTHACHE. In some cases of toothache, Vicks will be found a temporary relief. Rub it well around the gums, and if the tooth is loose, put a little Vicks in the hollow. Then apply a hot water bottle or a hot wet towel.

For Animals. For domestic animals and fowls, Vicks has been found effective in certain diseases.

DISTENTER IN HORSES OR DOGS. Rub Vicks on throat and apply freely up the nostrils.

COLDS OR ROTS IN FOWLS. Rub Vicks over the nostrils, holes in beak and make the fowl swallow a piece the size of a bean.

PNEUMONIA OR FLUENT IN HORSES. Keep in a warm, dry, well ventilated, roomy box stall, and give plenty of water and laxative food. Rub Vicks over each nostril, and rub handlings up each nostril. Rub the salve over region of the lungs, back of forelegs and cover with wide bandage. Repeat applications every three or four hours until the fever is broken. Blanket the animal and bandage legs if stall is too cold. Give pint of raw linseed oil, into which an ounce of powdered aloes has been dissolved. Also give twenty grains of quinine twice daily; wrap nose in tissue paper and throw well back of tongue.

VICKS IS NOT MEANT TO REPLACE THE PHYSICIAN.

At the first symptom of a serious illness, such as pneumonia, a physician should always be called. Many other troubles, such as chronic catarrh or continued headaches, call for the diagnosis of a good doctor. Vicks is simply an emergency remedy, which can be kept in the home, ready for instant use and which can be used freely, with perfect safety, on the youngest member of the family.

Samples Free. If you have never tried Vicks, we will be glad to send samples free to you and any of your friends whose names and addresses you will send us.

CORPERATIVE STORE IDEA IS SPREADING THRUOUT THE NATION

HEAD OF LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS' UNION EXPECTS GOVERNMENT TO TAKE LEADING PART

(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Cleveland, O.—Because cooperation slashes the cost of living by eliminating the profiteering middleman, the movement is spreading rapidly throughout the United States.

Fifteen to 20 new cooperative businesses are launched each week. American cooperators, numbering 5,000,000, did a billion dollar business last year in 15,000 cooperative enterprises.

The government's failure to curb profiteers is causing the common man and his wife who are tired of the struggle to make both ends meet, to turn hopefully to this practical and understandable plan of "own the business and share the profits."

Cooperation is regarded as a foe by most competitive business dealing with life's necessities. Advantage has been taken by the profiteer in the past of the lack of skill of cooperators to wreck 10 cooperative ventures out of every 20. This has taught cooperators the value of unification.

Today they plan a nationwide organization to guide cooperators in shrewd business and give them strength to fight the middleman.

Cooperators fought a losing fight in other countries until they formed national alliances. Now in many European countries—England, Russia, Norway, Sweden and Denmark—the cooperators dominate trade. Through "us producers" union the Russian peasant reaps the full profit on the sale of his goods to a Russian co-operative retailer.

The retailer sells at a market price which the profit taking competitors help to fix, but the profits are turned back each quarter to the thousands of shareholders who are the ultimate consumers.

Russia learned long ago that competitive business did not treat the cooperative managers. Hence the cooperators maintain schools where the principles of cooperative business are taught.

These elements are those that must be taught to the people of the United States, according to Warren S. Stone, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and a father of the cooperative movement.

"Poor management and the lack of protection the small cooperative business has had against its competitors has been responsible for past failures," says Stone. We want to establish a strong cooperative wholesale system and reduce the management of the local businesses to the scientific Rochdale basis.

Stone looks to a time when the link between producer and consumer will be the government.

"It is a dream now," he says, "that some day the farmer will load his goods at his door on a government truck and receive a receipt for them. These products will then be turned over to the government-owned railways and sold later through cooperative markets. In five years, I believe cooperation will be the biggest factor in American life."

RUM RUNNERS BUSY ON FLORIDA COAST

PLANES AND BOATS BUSY SMUGGLING BOOZE TO SMALL ISLANDS ON COAST—OFFICERS ALERT

By Lee J. Smits
(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Tampa, Fla.—Once more they are buying treasure in the tawny sands of the palm-crowned keys. Once more, by the soft light of tropical stars, richly laden chests are hidden and dug up again. Men are risking hurricane and cannon shot for the sake of booty.

It's "Yo, ho, ho, and a bottle of rum," literally, this time.

And not only are the successors of the ancient sea-rovers sneaking in and out of obscure lagoons in rakish schooners, but they are plying the upper air levels in pursuing the new adventure of booze smuggling.

Remodeled bombing planes scout between the Florida coast and the tiny, sterile, Bahama, a British possession, carrying half-ton cargoes of the precious fluids for which thirsty tourists pay practically their weight in silver.

Florida prohibitionists have organized for a renewal of the battle against booze, this time to check, if they can, the illicit importation of drinkables from Cuba and the Bermudas.

In the resort centers of this state the most precious of imported beverages, wines and liquors are to be had. Moonshine is for those who cannot afford the costlier beverages, but for spenders with full pocketbooks, impressive wine lists are available in many cafes. From cocktails to caviar, the liquid accompaniments of a sea-food dinner, cooked and served with Spanish flourish, may be obtained.

The rum runners, operating with airplanes, gasoline engines and sailing craft, are of all breeds that follow the sea. Many of them are Latin—perhaps the direct descendants of some of the old Spanish adventurers who took with cutlass and pistol a lavish living from the Spanish main.

Revenue cutters are on the job, and it is rumored that an extra detail of 100 special agents of Prohibition Commissioner Kramer has been assigned to operate in Florida. In the chief ports from which the smugglers sail with their contraband. But it is admitted that the task of enforcement will be exceedingly difficult.

The coast of Florida has thousands of hiding places for sail craft; there are myriads of remote islands, uninhabited and inaccessible to vessels of any draft. The stage is set for the sagacious spongers, fishermen and coasting sailors who are willing to turn a dishonest dollar.

Within 100 miles of the Florida coast are several places where alcoholic beverages may be purchased in any quantity at prices which afford a splendid profit when retailed at bootleg figures.

No Appetizer, But Appetite
Now that the cocktail is no more, experts who never have found a flaw in this once popular appetizer feel free to speak their minds about it.

"An appetizer?" demands Copeland Townsend, of the Majestic Hotel. "Why we have found that it not only failed to produce an appetite, but succeeded in consuming it. Since the public is not drinking cocktails or highballs before and with meals, the course dinner, luncheon and even breakfast are becoming popular. Men who never before thought of ordering deserts or sweets in any form now take heavy deserts. The belief that liquor stimulates the appetite is an erroneous one."—The Christian Herald.

AMERICAN OIL MEN PREY OF MEXICAN AND BANDIT GANG

"KING" PELAEZ EXACTS THOUSANDS FROM AMERICAN FIRMS—BRITISH MAKE BIG PROFITS

By Chester M. Wright
(Special to Post-Crescent.)
New York—"King" Pelaez must be a merry old soul, if money helps to generate happiness in the breast of a man. For "King" Pelaez collects about $30,000 each month from American oil companies in the Tampico oil district of Mexico.

There are two ways of stating this proposition. One way is to say that American oil interests in Mexico are financing a constant rebellion against the Mexican government by maintaining, in the field, an armed force of rebels.

The other way is to say that the oil companies are held up for a stipulated amount each month and that they have to pay because Carranza doesn't put down the rebel band.

The fact remains that Americans are paying a fixed amount each month to Pelaez, and that the money goes to support the armed force that Pelaez keeps in the field. Pelaez is a rebel, a bandit.

It is clear that a rebel chief who gets $30,000 a month in cash can keep a much more effective force in the field than a rebel chief who gets nothing.

However, the oil men say that if they don't pay, Pelaez will destroy their wells. They also say that the State Department knows that these payments are being made.

One of the peculiar features of this situation is that there seems to be little resentment against Pelaez, while resentment against Carranza has boiled up ever since Carranza got on the job. Pelaez has been much talked about by witnesses before the Fall committee and mostly, he seems to be looked upon as one who is not a bad sort at all.

This heavy payment to a bandit leader makes its greatest impression on anti-interventionists, with whom I have talked, because of the constant fire of condemnation which oil interests have directed at Carranza. It is pointed out that the oil interests have roasted Carranza constantly on one hand and subsidized a rebel army on the other.

It is curious that while the American oil interests maintained their opposition to the oil provisions of the Mexican constitution the British interests complied fully and kept on drilling, greatly to their profit and to American loss.

The Mexican Eagle Oil Co., a combination of the Peoria and the Old Royal Dutch Shell interests, which complied with the Carranza government conditions, has just announced earnings for the year ending June 30, as $23,000,000 net. The surplus, after paying dividends is announced as being $3,443,282. The figures are in Mexican dollars.

The city of Sheffield contributed 70 per cent of the war material furnished by private firms in Great Britain during the war, according to a pamphlet issued by the city council.

BADGER VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS ARE THE BEST

(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Madison, Wis.—Although more complete trade schools are found in many of the eastern cities than in Wisconsin (with the exception of Stout Institute) this state has no comparison in the part time vocational schools.

That is the consensus of opinion of members of the State Board of Vocational Education after a two weeks' tour of the most important vocational schools in the east and in eastern Canada. In the party were President E. W. Schultz, Shoboygan; Secretary John Callahan, Madison; George F. Comings, Eau Claire; J. H. McQuaid, Milwaukee, of the State Board of Vocational Education; Director Cooley, of the Milwaukee Continuation school and Director W. S. Ford, Appleton.

"Out trip was of inestimable value to the board and members of the party individually," declared Secretary Callahan. "We secured a great deal of information which will enable us to improve our vocational school system, but we were pleased to note that Wisconsin is so far ahead of the other states in the matter of part-time vocational training that there is no comparison."

PLANS FOR RETURN OF U.S. DEAD STARTED

ASSISTANT TO SECRETARY BAKER WILL GO TO FRANCE SOON TO INSPECT THE WORK

Washington, D. C.—Ralph Hayes, assistant to Secretary of War Baker, will go overseas to inspect the work of preparing for the return of the American military dead.

Mr. Hayes will make particularly inspections of American burial places for the accommodation of those bodies whose permanent retention in France has been requested by the nearest of kin.

"Slightly more than 90 per cent of American military dead overseas lie in France," Secretary Baker said on Tuesday.

The state department in behalf of the war department has completed an agreement giving permission for the disinterment and for the return to America or for other disposition of bodies in the zone of the interior. It hopes to effect a similar agreement for the French zone of the armies, where most of the battle dead lie. The bodies of those not requested by their next of kin to be returned from France will be gathered there in two or three American fields of honor.

"Several units of graves registration personnel have started recently from the United States. Operations are beginning at Southampton and probably will start soon at Brest."

"Information reaching the war department indicates that about 50 per cent of the relatives of deceased American soldiers want the bodies of their relatives returned."

NIP PLOT TO STEAL $5,000,000 IN BONDS

By United Press Leased Wire

New York—Details of a plot to steal $25,000,000 worth of Liberty bonds and other securities from Wall street firms were revealed by police today, following arrests of three men on a charge of having stolen securities from Parish and company, stock brokers, amounting to several thousand dollars.

The men under arrest are Joseph and Irving Gluck, messengers, and E. J. Furey, a chauffeur.

Police believe they have discovered the connecting link whereby a Wall street concern came into possession of several million dollars worth of Liberty bonds stolen from firms in the financial district during the last six months.

PRICE OF MILK FALLS ONE CENT IN MILWAUKEE

By United Press Leased Wire

Milwaukee—Announcement was made today that the price of milk to the consumer will be reduced one cent, to 12 cents a quart, here on March 1. Dairymen say the cut is due to the decline in prices paid producers. Wholesale grocers predict a decline in egg prices for next week. Fresh eggs will retail at fifty cents a dozen, they say.

LOAN BANKS MAKE MEN HOME OWNERS

TENANT FARMERS ARE ENCOURAGED TO BUY FARMS THROUGH FEDERAL BANK IDEA

By George E. Waters (Special to Post-Crescent)

Washington—The man who has a fee simple title to land is for the government, for the institutions, for the flag and against those who would disrupt organized society.

Recognizing these facts, the Farm Loan Board is seeking to make the tenant farmer the home owner. How it is succeeding is shown by statistics compiled for October showing that during that month there were 693 landless borrowers; that after they became borrowers they became owners of land; that the amount borrowed was $2,150,375.

At this rate the Federal Land Banks would be creating 1398 farm home owners a year, or about 14,000 in a decade, and each 10 years there would be loaned to former landless people more than $250,000,000. The land represented as security would be worth $500,000,000.

For the month an average of about 16 per cent of all loans made by the 12 banks were to landless farmers. Many of these farmers have been tenants all their lives, the soil they were trying to work was exhausted and the improvements were run-down. But when they became proprietors, they took a new lease on life, started to fertilize the land, and their hope of reward was greater.

The plan is to find men who are willing to sell land and to explain to tenants how they can buy on long-time payments. Instead of dividing their crops, members of the Farm Loan Board say the plan is a success. The Federal Land Bank loans 50 per cent of the value of the land and takes a first mortgage, the owner of the land takes a second mortgage and the bank dictates the terms of it, writing one that gives the borrower a long time in which to pay and one that cannot be foreclosed at the will of the holder.

POLITICAL ISSUES HAVE BEARING ON BISBEE CASE

Majority of Men Called for Jury Service Have Filled Ideas Concerning Guilt of Accused Men

(By M. D. Tracy.)

By United Press Leased Wire
Tombstone, Ariz.—The political significance of the Bisbee deportation cases is playing a big part in making difficult the selection of a jury.

Because of an election held over a year ago in which the question of prosecutions in this case was the issue, the great majority of talesmen have fixed opinions as to the guilt or innocence of the defendants.

A total of 267 veniremen were brought into court from the third panel of 500. Of these 33 were excused for statutory causes, such as old age and connections with the case, while 133 were excused by stipulation between attorneys. This leaves 101 remaining for examination. County Attorney French believed a jury could be completed from those remaining but J. A. Curley, for the defense, thought possibly a fourth venire would be necessary.

MARTIN PEETERS IS NEW MANAGER OF THE WADHAMS OIL CO.

LITTLE CHUTE YOUNG MAN SUCCEEDS BURTON REINFRANK AS HEAD OF LOCAL BRANCH

Martin Peeters, Little Chute, employed at the Bohne and Jenson store, today became manager of the Wadhams Oil Company branch here, succeeding Burton Reinfrank who has been transferred to Sheboygan where he will take charge of the company's largest station outside of Milwaukee. Mr. Reinfrank left Appleton last night and took charge of the Sheboygan plant today.

Mr. Peeters has had considerable experience in the gasoline and oil business with the Peeters Oil and Compound Company of Milwaukee. He is a veteran of the great war, serving as a sergeant in the medical section of the 150th machine gun battalion of the Rainbow Division. He was severely gassed while in the service.

Mr. Reinfrank came to Appleton last July, succeeding H. E. DeBauer who is now stationed at Milwaukee. The transfer to the Sheboygan branch is regarded as a promotion.

TWO MIKES MAY MEET IN $100,000 SHOW

ST. PAUL BOXING FANS MAY BE GIVEN CHANCE TO SEE GIBBONS AND O'DOWD IN ACTION

(Special to Post-Crescent)

By Fred Turville
Chicago—Mike Gibbons is supposed to be in retirement in St. Paul but he hasn't fallen into such sound sleep that the clinking and clanking of a hundred thousand iron men wouldn't wake him up. Eddie Kane, manager of the Gibbons brothers—Mike and Tommy—gave me this careful as he supervised Tommy's training work in a local gym.

"Yes, Mike's in retirement, all right," said Eddie, "but I'm telling you the fans of St. Paul want to see another scrap between the two Mike's—Gibbons and O'Dowd, and they'll pay out a hundred thousand for the show. It would be the biggest thing in the fist line ever staged in Minneapolis, and I look for the promoters to get busy and put it on the coming summer."

The two Mike's met last summer and it was a battle worth seeing. Gibbons didn't win and he announced he was through. He has been boxing several years, but he is still young and in good shape. O'Dowd, the champion, is much younger, of course, but there isn't a world of difference between the two, and any time they fight there'll be a crowd present.

Eddie Kane isn't keeping as busy as he did in the days when Mike was active in the ring, for now he has just Tommy to look after, and somehow or other he can't find much work for Tom.

"They're afraid of Tommy," he said. "He has never met his match in the ring and the other boys let him alone. He's the best man at his weight today and he'll scare either middle or light heavies. We'll tackle Bob Martin too."

LABOR WILL LAUNCH HUGE COOPERATIVE BANK THIS SPRING

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS WILL FOUND BANK AS PART OF NATIONAL WIDE CO-OPERATIVE PLAN

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Cleveland, O.—Labor is soon to own and manage a $50,000,000 co-operative bank.

This bank is to be part of a gigantic nation-wide plan of co-operation launched by the railway-brotherhoods in conjunction with the farmers and co-operators of America.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers will found the bank and make initial deposits of approximately $25,000,000. It is expected that the United Mine Workers will furnish $15,000,000, while the Amalgamated Clothing Workers and the International Garment Workers are backing the plan with the millions in their coffers. The brotherhoods purchased $200,000,000 in Liberty Bonds, which the bank will handle.

Bank a Vital Link
"Banking has always been regarded as a difficult and intricate trade," says Warren S. Stone, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. "We find that, instead, it is the simplest of all businesses. Capital has used the funds of labor too long to fight labor. The bank is a vital link in the trade chain between producer and consumer. If national co-operation is to be a success, the co-operator must control all links of the chain."

The bank will have a low capitalization, Stone thinks, because the Ohio law, under which it will be capitalized, requires a tax on the figure in the articles of incorporation. It is probable that the capitalization will be less than $300,000.

According to present plans, which may be changed by a committee which met in Chicago, Feb. 11, the bank will have its offices in Cleveland, where the brotherhoods have national headquarters.

"However," says Stone, "its business will not be limited to Ohio. The engineers alone have 365 lodges, each with a bonded secretary. These secretaries will be made agents of the bank and authorized to accept savings deposits. Later branch banks will be opened in industrial centers all over the United States."

The bank will be incorporated as a trust company also, in order that it may have the flexibility of operation granted trust companies, but not banks under the laws. Arrangements will be made, if possible, that the bank become a member of the Federal Reserve system.

Established Before Spring
"This bank," Stone says, "is to be established before spring and in full operation within a few weeks. We have our plans well laid, although they will not be officially adopted until the bank committee meets on the day before the All-American Conference of Farmers and Labor is held at Chicago to discuss ways and means of making a national co-operative buying and selling program successful."

By a "gentleman's agreement" the five brotherhoods of railway employees are each venturing, or about to venture, into a new co-operative field in an effort to reduce the high cost of living.

Berger Appeals for a Continuance of Hearing
By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago—A plea by Victor Berger for continuance of his appeal hearing before the federal appellate court here until March 11 was before the court today.

Reason for asking the delay was believed to be the new evidence presented against Berger in a 348 page brief filed with the court last week by the prosecution.

BADGERS TOOK PART IN FIVE U.S. WARS

WISCONSIN HAS NOTABLE WAR RECORD—ONE CONFLICT TOOK PLACE ON SOIL OF THIS STATE

(Special to Post-Crescent)

Madison—Despite the reputation of America as a land of peace, the Badger state has participated in five wars.

The Black Hawk war of 1832 was largely enacted on Wisconsin soil; General Henry Dodge, later our first territorial governor, was perhaps its principal hero.

Wisconsin was still a territory and principally a wilderness when the Mexican war came on. Notwithstanding, companies of Wisconsin soldiers volunteered for service in distant Mexico and departed for the front amidst scenes of great enthusiasm—some of them, alas, to lay down their lives on the battlefields of Mexico.

The state's record in the Civil war is familiar to most citizens. With a total population of only three-quarters of a million, Wisconsin sent over ninety thousand blue-clad soldiers into the south to fight for the preservation of the Union—three times as many soldiers as the state's population in 1840.

The Spanish war did not make any great demand upon the state.

"What we did in the world war is known to all in Wisconsin and to many in distant Germany."

TEX RICKARD WILL STAGE THE DEMPSEY-CARPENTIER BATTLE

MANAGER OF FRENCH CHAMPION ANNOUNCES THAT DEMPSEY HAS SIGNED UP FOR THE FIGHT.

By United Press Leased Wire
Paris. — Tex. Rickard, American fight promoter who staged the Dempsey-Willard fight, undoubtedly will put on the next world's championship contest between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier, according to M. Descamps, manager of the European champion.

Descamps after announcing today he had received assurance that Rickard had signed Dempsey, said he probably would sign with the American promoter as soon as he arrived in America late in March.

In securing the signature of the world's champion, Rickard has outdistanced Theodore Vienne, Charles B. Cochran and William Fox, who made big offers for Carpentier's services, were unable to get Dempsey's name on the agreement, he said.

Descamps left today with his charge for a week's exhibition in Monte Carlo, following which they are to take a tour of Italy. Before leaving, Descamps in an interview said he hoped with his statement to clear up the situation and permit the American fans to know the real situation.

"We will undoubtedly sign with Dempsey through Tex. Rickard as soon as we arrive in America," he said. "Developments have reached such a stage that I can announce the receipt of a message from Rickard on December 20 last in which he gave assurance that he had signed Dempsey. Showing Dempsey's signature, through his representative here, he offered to come to Paris and sign with me. I replied that it was unnecessary as Charles B. Cochran, promoter, had an option on Carpentier's services until Feb. 1 and that as we were due in America shortly after that we were there the negotiations there.

"Cochran is due from England today but I feel sure he has failed to secure Dempsey's signature and thus I am practically sure Rickard will stage the fight. All the persons who are claiming options on the Frenchman's services are not correct. For instance, Theodore Vienne, Paris, and William Fox, New York, who made huge offers, got only the promise of the champion's services if they were able to sign Dempsey before we left for America. This I consider impossible since Rickard has signed him.

Rickard won't talk.
New York. — "I have nothing to say at this time," Tex. Rickard said here today, when asked about the announcement of M. Descamps, manager of Georges Carpentier, that he was almost sure of landing the Dempsey-Carpentier fight.

Rickard admitted sometime ago that he was in the field for the championship match and intimated that there was truth in the report prevalent for sometime that he had obtained the promise of Dempsey's services in his next fight before the fight at Toledo last July when he became champion.

MOTHER CHANGES MIND ABOUT SELLING CHILD

By United Press Leased Wire
New York. — Mrs. Anna Kaplan, who offered her eight day old baby for sale for $1,000 has changed her mind and intends to put the infant in an institution where she may some day reclaim it. No offers of $1,000 were received Mrs. Kaplan said.

She intended selling her baby to pay debts contracted since her husband deserted her seven months ago she said.

Ray Smith and his manager, Scotty Monteith.

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Bob Martin, A. E. F. heavyweight champion, scored nine clean knock-outs.

Then he met Sergeant Ray Smith in a Cleveland ring.

There was no occasion for the referee to count ten during the evening. Smith at once sprang into the line. His services immediately were in demand all over the country.

A good share of the tour which Bob Martin was compelled to call off while a bonesetter readjusted the cartilages in his hand was turned over to the disposal of the big fighting sergeant.

Smith was born at Camden, N. J. He is 22 years old. He weighs 180. Before the late war he was a member of the Tenth U. S. Infantry, stationed at Panama.

When the war came along Smith got an early start.

His adventures in the trenches netted him about everything in the way of wounds. There is a rough shrapnel wound under his right shoulder. A machine gun bullet clipped his right arm. A hand grenade made a bad scar on his right forearm. His right leg was pierced by a German bayonet.

He was also slightly gassed. As for taking punishment Smith would get a medal in any old game.

Ray used to be a copy boy in the editorial rooms of the Philadelphia North American.

"I got pretty well bumped around by other boys so that I never minded getting tumbled and battered up. So when I got to boxing in the army it seemed more like play than anything else."

The roughest experience he had overseas was with a coal heaver in London.

According to the story when Smith came to in his dressing room the coal heaver "heaved" a dumb bell at him. Ray finished him with a chair in 17 seconds.

In his gymnasium work he allows men—big 250-pound men—to jump up and down and invites them to kick him in the jaw.

The day after he boxed Martin he wouldn't let anyone touch his jaw even with a powderpuff. "That bird Martin, he leaned on it too often."

It's no wonder he is tough—and that he won a Croix de Guerre with two palms, or that he stayed 10 rounds with Bob Martin.

STATE UNIVERSITY TO STAGE STATE H.S. BASKETBALL TOURNEY

WISCONSIN AUTHORITIES SEEK CONSENT OF LAWRENCE TO STAGE TOURNEY AT MADISON

Madison.—An epochal development in high school basketball competition in Wisconsin was put across today with the announcement by Coach Tom Jones, head of the athletic department at the university, that the University of Wisconsin has accepted the offer made by the state normal schools to have the annual inter-high school basketball tournament.

The decision to have the inter-high school tournament held in the varsity gym marks the healing of what had been a weak spot as well as a delicate spot in the Wisconsin high school athletic system for many years.

For many seasons several of the smaller colleges in the state held inter-high school tournaments every year, each being an invitation affair, and the season usually ended with several high schools claiming the state honors despite efforts to settle the arguments. Of these tournaments only that held by Lawrence college has survived through the years.

For some years the Lawrence tournament was the only big state tournament for the preparatory schools. Then the state normal schools entered the field and for the last few years the normal school competition has been the best organized and the most thorough system existing in the state for the settlement of the high school honors in basketball.

Under the state normal school system, each normal school held a local basketball tournament in which all schools in the district which thought they have any chance at all for honors were allowed to enter and compete with the other schools. The winners of each of the several normal school tournaments met in one of the normals to fight out the championships.

The local arrangements in this system have been retained under the new plan. Normal schools will continue to hold their district tournaments to determine what teams will represent the districts in the state competition in Madison.

The defect in the old system was the fact that too much competition existed between the normal schools in landing the state tournament each year. The second year of the Menomonee, under this plan resulted disastrously in a fight. Several subsequent tournaments were successes.

The selection of the University of Wisconsin, however, to handle the final competition in the events not only eliminates the competition among normal schools for the big

PEACE REIGNS IN AMERICAN LEAGUE AFTER CONFERENCE

DIFFICULTIES BETWEEN CLUB OWNERS ARE SMOOTHED OUT—CARL MAYS IS REINSTATED

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Peace reigned in the American league today following the annual meeting of club owners which ended at 2 a. m.

A resolution ending the present difficulties and making it practically impossible for similar troubles to again arise was unanimously adopted.

The settlement appeared to be a compromise between the warring factions. All litigation instituted by the New York club against President Ban Johnson will be withdrawn; Carl Mays will be reinstated as a member of the New York club in good standing; all games pitched by Mays last season for New York will be recognized, thus giving New York third place and third prize money in the 1919 race.

A statement issued following the meeting follows:

"First—The dismissal of all litigation instituted by the New York American league.

"Second—The reinstatement of Carl Mays as a member of the New York club.

"Third—The recommendation to the National commission to award third place in the American league race to the New York club and third place prize money to New York.

"Fourth—The appointment of a committee of review or arbitration for two years consisting of Col. Jacob Ruppert and Clark Griffith to act as event, but puts it in the hands of a disinterested party which has every facility to handle the meet in the best possible manner.

Only one thing remains for the Wisconsin inter-high school basketball system to be placed on a perfect footing. Two years ago Lawrence college signified its willingness to discontinue its annual basketball tournaments in favor of a state tournament to be held by the university. At that time the move was not deemed advisable for the university because of the normal school organization in the field. With the normal's request to the university to handle the final event, only the consent of Lawrence to drop from the field will be necessary to make for a perfect organization in the state.

ADVANCE SOLUTION OF ILLEGITIMACY PROBLEM

LABOR CONFERENCE WOULD DETERMINE FATHER BY INVESTIGATION AND GIVE NAME TO CHILD

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Children born out of wedlock will be made wards of a court, if legislation recommended by labor conference on illegitimacy here, is adopted. It was announced today.

The conference held that a child born out of wedlock should have the same rights of inheritance as the legitimate child.

The surname of the mother should be given the child until after adjudication of paternity and upon petition of the child after it attains its majority, or by its guardian during minority, the courts should permit the child to assume its father's name.

Other recommendations by the conference included:

Registration of all illegitimate births. The name of the father should be recorded only after adjudication of paternity or upon the written consent of the father.

All birth records should be private and confidential.

All cases of illegitimate birth should be reported to a public agency. This agency should be empowered to institute tute proceedings to establish paternity in case the mother is unwilling to do so.

Proceedings to establish paternity should be of a private character.

The court should have the power to name a guardian, at its discretion. Financial assistance should be given the mother from other sources if the father provides inadequate support.

The father should make provision for adequate maintenance and education of the children.

CONFUSION IN NAMES HAS WRONG MAN DEAD

By United Press Leased Wire
St. Paul.—Frederick L. Kellogg, former St. Paul business man, died at Portland, Ore., early today.

Word of his death reached here and through a confusion of names a report was widely circulated that United States Senator Frank B. Kellogg had died.

Frederick Kellogg and Senator Kellogg were good friends in St. Paul several years ago.

Senator Kellogg's reply to the report of his death was:

"Mark Twain."

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisided coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

There is No Time to Lose

ALMOST before you realize it, spring and the touring season will be here, and with it the greatest shortage of motor cars ever known. That is now an absolute certainty. Those in a position to know, estimate that the production will fall short of the demand by fully one million cars. And prices—goodness knows where they will have to go! It is predicted that used cars of standard makes will, in many instances, command higher prices than they originally cost new. Of Buicks, two to four years old, that is already true.

This territory has been allotted a limited number of Buick cars for the season of 1920. That allotment can not be increased and with the present car shortage there is a possibility of this allotment being decreased.

AT THE PRESENT TIME we can guarantee spring delivery on a limited number of Buick cars. Every order placed ahead of yours will naturally receive first consideration, it is the only fair way that we can find to distribute this territory's allotment of Buicks. So to assure yourself of a Buick car for spring delivery you must place your order at once. Only the alert can hope to be the elect who will drive Buicks.

Don't Delay—Today Won't Be a Minute Too Soon.

YELLOWSTONE TRAIL WILL CONTINUE TO PASSTHROUGHAPPLETON

APPLETON DELEGATION SUCCESSFUL IN KEEPING TRAIL FOR THIS CITY—BIG MEETING

Through the efforts of six Appleton men who attended the district meeting at Oshkosh yesterday, the Yellowstone trail will continue to pass through Appleton. Continuation of the trail through Appleton was recommended by a special committee appointed to investigate proposed changes and in all probability the committee's suggestion will be followed at the executive committee meeting in Milwaukee, Feb. 15 and 16.

All preparations for changing the route had been made by General Manager Cooley, St. Paul, and it was only the determined opposition of the valley delegation, assisted by representatives from Milwaukee, which kept the trail in Appleton. It had been proposed to restore the old route which carried the trail from Gillingham's corners north over the Ridge road to the Appleton-Medina road, about four miles west of Appleton. That route is fourteen miles shorter than the one in use now but it leaves tourists without adequate hotel and garage accommodations between Oshkosh and St. Paul.

Appleton's delegation consisted of P. E. Schintz, John Conway, H. L. Post, Ambrose Wilton, George Puth and G. E. Froelich. The delegation cast 23 votes, one for each $10 paid into the Yellowstone Trail Association fund. Appleton subscribers to the fund agreed to make payments each year for five years.

It was said at the meeting that 22,000 automobiles came into Wisconsin over the Yellowstone trail from Chicago and that 16,000 checked out on the Wisconsin-Minnesota boundary. Not less than 15,000 cars followed the trail through Appleton. An increase of 40 per cent in the amount of travel over the trail was predicted for 1920.

A delegation representing Watertown attended the meeting in an effort to have that city included in the trail but was not given a hearing. About 75 men were in attendance. The meeting was the largest and most interesting ever held in this district.

FAVOR $10,000 AWARD FOR DEATH OF MAN

Gordon, who was killed by an icicle which fell from the roof of the Trust company building at East Water and Wisconsin streets.

Mr. Gordon was on his way to his office in the building when the icicle fell, killing him instantly. He was state manager of the Travelers' Insurance company.

The Supreme court's decision holding the Nye educational bill constitutional was explained in a statement handed down by Justice Vinje. According to the outline of the decision the purpose of the Nye law is to stimulate love of country and to instill the impressive object lesson of supreme patriotism, which is held to warrant the expenditure carrying out of the law will require.

SEEK PROTECTION FOR PURCHASERS OF PEAS

STATE MARKET COMMISSION URGES THAT CANS BE MARKED STATING QUALITY OF ARTICLE

(Special to Post-Crescent)
Madison.—That the variety, grade and size of canned peas should be stamped on the can, so as to let the consumer know what quality he is paying for, is the substance of a report on canneries rendered by the state Division of Markets at the request of the Milwaukee Fair Price Committee. The report lays particular emphasis upon canned peas, because Wisconsin's 91 canneries produce one-half of the canned peas of the entire United States.

The report shows that the prices charged by a single canner may vary from $3.50 to $1.20 per dozen cans, depending upon the variety, grade and size of the peas, in which there are thirty recognized variations. The label on the can however does not show what grade or size the can contains. Therefore, the consumer in buying at the grocery does not know whether he is paying for peas which grade Fancy, Extra Standard or Standard or for size No. 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5.

The report suggests that public hearings will be called by the Division of Markets to determine standards and to require the marking of cans. The report, which is written by the counsel for the commission, continues:

"The market at the present time is buying and selling peas according to recognized grades and sizes. The legal adoption of these grades cannot be any imposition upon the trade. The canneries, I am convinced, will gladly label their products according to grade and size, for they are already selling on the basis of these specifications."

The farmer's return from a can of peas, according to the report, is about 5c, which represents the price he receives for the peas contained in the ordinary can that sells from 15c to 30c retail.

Distribution costs in the marketing of canned vegetables are as high as 50 to 60 per cent. The report cites the fact that canned corn is sold by the Sun Prairie cannery for 10c and a fraction per can, but costs the consumer 17c at the grocery in Madison. Sun Prairie is only eleven miles from Madison. Yet the amount which the consumer pays for distribution is 65 per cent of the original factory price.

LITTLE GAMBLING GOING ON IN THIS CITY, POLICE AVER

POLICE OFFICERS KEEP CLOSE WATCH ON SUSPECTS—MANY COCK FIGHTS NEAR THE CITY

Is gambling going on in Appleton? The club stone boaster and a few who saw interest in the enforcement of law say it is. They allege that poker, "crap shooting," crick-fights and other games of chance are going on at the present time in this city.

When asked about the matter, George T. Pratt, chief of police made the statement that similar reports had come to him and he had followed up all rumors to ascertain their truth. He states that there is no poker playing allowed anywhere within the city limits of Appleton, and that any offenders will be dealt with as soon as he finds out who they are.

As to "crap shooting," it is a difficult matter to catch persons in the act. All it takes to make a crap game, he states, is two dice and two men. It is a forbidden practice in this city, and he knows of no violations of the law, except where it may possibly be done in a quiet way without any means of detection.

"Kelt" pool was also alluded to as one of the rumored evils. No complaints have reached the police department to the effect that any local pool room permits this form of gambling. However, following up the rumors, a new investigation will be made at once.

When questioned about cock fights, the chief admitted that he knew they were going on, but not in the city limits of Appleton. Over the county line in Winnebago county, they appear to be permitted, or else are staged unbeknown to the sheriff of that county. It is perhaps this fact that led to the opinion on part of some that Appleton harbored such exhibitions, but this is another practice that the chief states he will not tolerate.

It is commonly known that much gambling was done as a pastime in the army, not openly of course and this is thought to have greatly stimulated the games of chance at home. Prohibition is also held to be the cause of an increased tendency along that line, mainly among those who must find a place to squander their money. These factors have caused many to attempt it here, but they have been promptly dealt with by the police. It is anticipated by some of those who know about or frequent the gambling places, that cock fights and gambling of other kinds are permitted inside the Outagamie county line but no prosecutions have been made as yet.

It is the desire of the police department to stop any gambling that is attempted in Appleton, and the chief asks that any person having knowledge of such offense report it to him at once, and he will cause the arrest of the participants.
